Description

1969 Grumman AA1 - Affordable & Fun!

PacTex Aviation is proud to present a rare find right here in the sunny valley of Arizona (KDVT)-a 1969 Grumman AA1, Serial Number 46. Whether you're chasing your dream of becoming a professional pilot or simply looking for an affordable way to take to the skies, this aircraft is your ticket.

Don't be fooled by its size-this Grumman delivers exactly what new pilots, weekend flyers, and time-builders are looking for: low operating costs, easy handling, and honest performance. With only 1,800 total airframe hours and 1,500 SMOH, this airplane still has plenty of life left for adventure.

Equipped with ADS-B Out, it's already compliant with today's airspace requirements-so you can fly confidently in busy airspace without extra upgrade costs.

If you've been looking for a budget-friendly way to get airborne and log hours without breaking the bank, this is the perfect opportunity. Affordable ownership, simple maintenance, and the pure joy of flight-this Grumman has it all.

At PacTex Aviation, we know finding the right first aircraft can be intimidating-but this one is all about making it easy. Don't miss your chance to own a piece of classic aviation history and start building your flight time today.

Contact PacTex Aviation Nate - 5072517334 or Email Nate@pactexaviation.com to schedule a viewing, take a closer look, and get in the air sooner than you think.
