Description

R3 Aviation proudly presents N502FG, a modern 2022 Tecnam P2008 Light Sport Aircraft with exceptionally low total time and a premium Garmin-equipped cockpit. Designed with a composite fuselage and metal wing construction, the P2008 offers modern aerodynamics, excellent visibility, and efficient performance in one of the most refined aircraft in the Light Sport category.

Equipped with the Garmin G3X Touch avionics suite, autopilot, and the reliable Rotax 912ULS engine, N502FG delivers a modern glass cockpit experience with outstanding fuel efficiency and smooth handling. With its wide cabin, low-time airframe, engine, and propeller, this Tecnam represents an excellent opportunity to step into a nearly new, well-equipped Light Sport Aircraft ready for personal flying or training use.
